

Jet 14 National Championships 2010

Please join us for the Junior, Women's, and National Championship Regattas at Tred Avon Yacht Club in Oxford, MD August 4-7, 2010. You don't want to miss this!

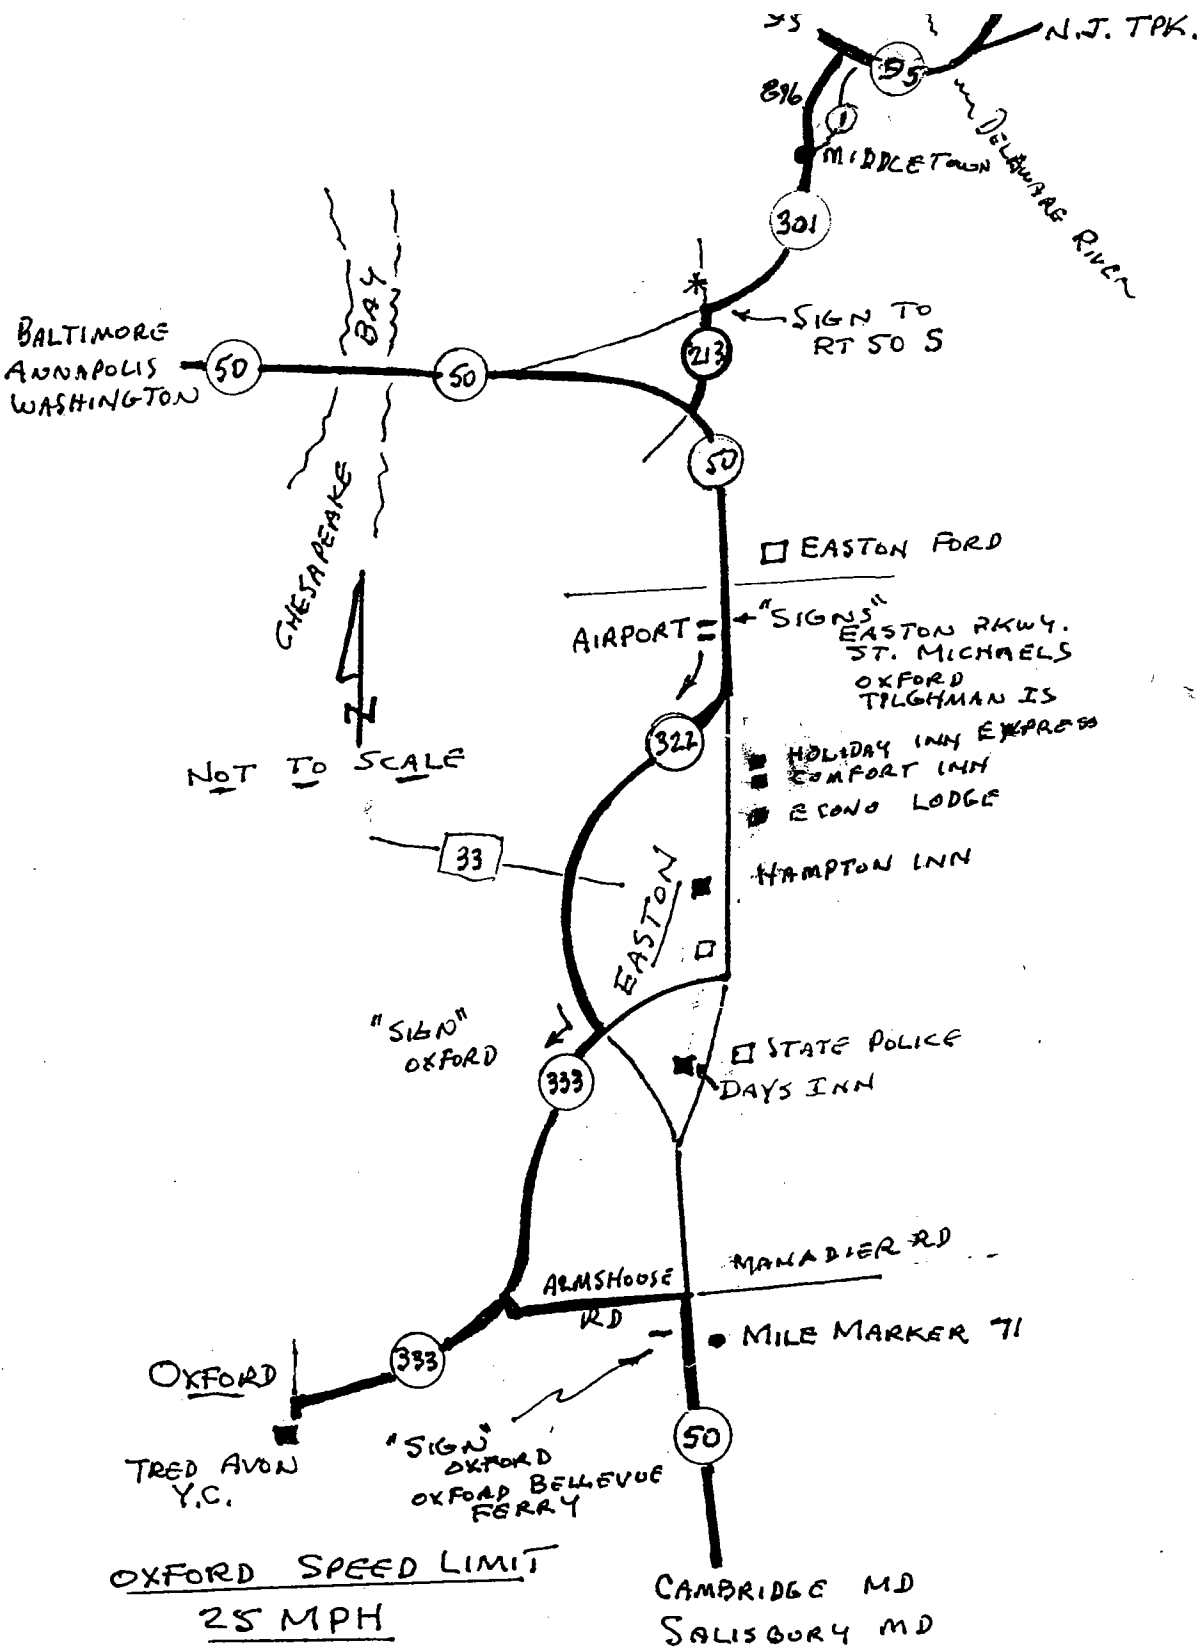

- TAYC is one of the best venues in the country to race sailboats. Great facilities, experienced race management personnel, and the low-traffic waters of the eastern shore of Chesapeake Bay make it the perfect site for sailing. Located in the historic town of Oxford, this is your chance to get away from the everyday chaos of life both on and off the water. And if you like crabs, there are none better!
- Please check the Notice of Race (on Class website) for eligibility, fees, measurement and schedule. All forms will be posted on the website as well as mailed to Class members in June. Online registration is encouraged, and IS EASY.
- HOW TO GET THERE Proceed to Route 50 south where it splits from Route 301 in Queenstown, MD, then to Route 322 just north of Easton, MD, then to Route 333 ("To Oxford"). Follow Route 333 to end (BE CAREFUL! Once in Oxford, speed limit is 25 MPH), then turn left, and TAYC will be immediately on right. (See map)
- WHERE TO STAY/EAT Several hotels are located on Route 50 in Easton, as follows:

| | |
|-----------------|--------------|
| Comfort Inn | 410-822-8333 |
| Days Inn | 410-822-4600 |
| Econo Lodge | 410-820-5555 |
| Holiday Inn Ex. | 410-820-8333 |
| Hampton Inn | 410-822-2200 |

Besides TAYC, which has the best food in town (3 breakfasts, and Friday dinner are provided with entry fee), several good local restaurants (great seafood) are in Oxford, with the national chains (Chili's, Ruby Tuesday, fast foods, etc.) in Easton. Easton is approximately 10 miles from Oxford.

There is also a limited number of TAYC members' homes for participants to stay. Please contact Brent Barbehenn if interested.
